this classic book on the theory of a lost continent in the pacific imparts the fascinating travel stories and theories of james churchward at the time of my parting with the rishi after seven years of study under him and when i thought i knew it all he placing his hand on my shoulder said go forth my son into nature s schoolhouse and learn for at present you know nothing except how to learn every old rock with its wrinkled and gnarled fact is speaking a tale of the past if you will but listen e very leaf on tree or bush and every flower and blade of grass growing out of the ground has a whisper for listening ears nature is the great schoolhouse of knowledge from which man is taught nature is god speaking in my previous books i endeavored to show the high state attained by the earth s first civilization the state they had arrived at after 200 000 years of study and experience and how man then learnt his lessons from nature a study which brought him into a closer touch with his heavenly father i showed that his sciences were mere copies of nature even his geometry and geometrical figures were taken from flowers he carried these flower symbols into his art so that today we find his ancient statuary and structures based on regular progressive geometrical lines the same geometrical figures were used in explaining and teaching religion in this work i have tried to show the ancient sciences in their grander and more sublime form taking a step nearer to the creator himself yet told in childlike simplicity as was the custom of the ancients unencumbered with technology and hard words to understand james churchward

this is a new release of the original 1926 edition fully illustrated according to churchward mu was a lost continent in the pacific ocean which was destroyed in a global cataclysm tens of thousands of years ago mu was the original home of mankind and all subsequent civilizations descended from it the pacific islands and their inhabitants are supposed to be the last survivors of this primordial motherland churchward s mu was a huge continent which stretched from micronesia in the west to easter island and hawaii in the east he also believed in a literal mid atlantic atlantis he proposed a global network of huge gas filled caverns which if vented could cause large areas of land to be submerged he claimed that while posted in india he befriended a priest rishi who revealed to him ancient tablets written in an otherwise unknown language the rishi taught him how to read this language naacal the tablets described the land of mu the lemuria of the theosophists he also claimed that he was able to discern writing from mu on a mysterious set of tablets discovered in mexico by an explorer named william niven a re issue of the 1926 classic by james churchward the lost continent of mu motherland of men supplemented with fresh research and new material by the author s great grandson in the 1920s james churchward wrote a series of groundbreaking books about the lost continent of lemuria which he called the land of mu the basic premises are these the garden of eden was not in asia but on a sunken continent in the pacific ocean the biblical story of creation came not from the peoples of the Nile but from this now submerged continent of mu the motherland of men mu was an advanced civilization of 64 million inhabitants he obtained the information by living with monks and translating unknown manuscripts over the years his books have come to be considered occult classics now his great grandson jack churchward has resurrected this valuable work and added his own research included the lost continent the land of man s advent on earth egyptian sacred volume book of the dead symbols of mu north american s place among the ancient civilizations the geological history of mu ancient religious conceptions ancient sacred mysteries rites and ceremonies was there once a continent in the pacific called lemuria or pacifica by geologists and mu or pan by the mystics there is now ample mythological geological and archaeological evidence to prove that an advanced and ancient civilization once lived in the central pacific maverick archaeologist and explorer david hatcher childress combs the indian ocean australia and the pacific in search of the astonishing truth about mankind s past mu as a lost pacific ocean continent was later popularized by james churchward 1851 1936 in a series of books beginning with lost continent of mu the motherland of man 1926 re edited later as the lost continent mu 1931 other popular books in the series are the children of mu 1931 and the sacred symbols of mu 1933 churchward claimed that more than fifty years ago while he was a soldier in india he befriended a high ranking temple priest who showed him a set of ancient sunburnt clay tablets supposedly in a long lost naga maya language which only two other people in india could read having mastered the language himself churchward found out that they originated from the place where man first appeared mu the 1931 edition states that all matter of science in this work are based on translations of two sets of ancient tablets the clay tables he read in india and a collection 2 500 stone tablets that had been uncovered by william niven in mexico p 7 churchward gave a vivid description of mu as the home of an advanced civilization the naacal which flourished between 50 000 and 12 000 years ago was dominated by a white race p 48 and was superior in many respects to our own p 17 at the time of its demise about 12 000 years ago mu had 64 000 000 inhabitants and many large cities and colonies in the other continents churchward claimed that the landmass of mu was located in the pacific ocean and stretched east west from the marianas to easter island and north south from hawaii to mangaia he claimed that according to the creation myth he read in the indian tablets mu had been lifted above sea level by the expansion of underground volcanic gases eventually mu was completely obliterated in almost a single night p 44 after a series of earthquakes and volcanic eruptions the broken land fell into that great abyss of fire and was covered by fifty millions of square miles of water p 50 churchward claimed that mu was the common origin of the great civilizations of egypt greece central america india burma and others including easter island and was in particular the source of ancient megalithic architecture as evidence for his claims he pointed to symbols from throughout the world in which he saw common themes of birds the relation of the earth and the sky and especially the sun churchward claims the king of mu was ra and he relates this to the egyptian god of the sun ra and the rapanui word for sun ra a which he incorrectly spells raa 8 p 48 he claimed to have found symbols of the sun in egypt babylonia peru and all ancient lands and countries it was a universal symbol 8 p 138 churchward attributed all megalithic art in polynesia to the people of mu he claimed that symbols of the sun are found depicted on stones of polynesian ruins such as the stone hats pukao on top of the giant moai statues of easter island citing w j johnson churchward describes the cylindrical hats as spheres that seem to show red in the distance and asserts that they represent the sun as ra p 138 he also incorrectly claimed that some of them are made of red sandstone 8 p 89 which does not occur in the island the platforms on which the statues rest ahu are described by churchward as being platform like accumulations of cut and dressed stone which were supposedly left in their current positions awaiting shipment to some other part of the continent for the building of temples and palaces p 89 he also cites the pillars erected by the maori of new zealand as an example of this lost civilization s handiwork p 158 in churchward s view the present day polynesians are not descendants of the dominant members of the lost civilization of mu responsible for these great works but survivors of the cataclysm that adopted the first cannibalism and savagery in the world an examination of archaeological controversies with arguments showing evidence of prehistoric civilizations not recorded as part of human history are history books giving us the whole story or is civilization far more complex and older than we have been taught our school textbooks barely mention the 6 000 year old sumerian civilization yet the latest archaeological findings at sites such as jericho and most recently gobekli tepe in turkey have been dated to 10 000 bc civilization goes back at least another 10 000 years if we are willing to believe what our ancestors themselves claimed the lost civilization enigma reveals the truth about lost magnitudes to known cultures such as the bosnian pyramids and the civilization of old europe the fabled lost golden cities of south america and the amazon which are slowly being rediscovered fascinating examples of lost technology such as the antikythera device atlantis and the fact that it was a real civilization analyzing the historical and archaeological record best selling author philip coppens demonstrates that there is substantial evidence that civilization is far older far more advanced and far more special than is currently accepted clearly our history books have left out a great deal
