this book analyses how reproductive rights and sexual freedoms the political sphere women's role in the workplace and sexual violence were positioned and depicted by three magazines with very different demographics spare rib cosmopolitan and woman's own the 1970s and 1980s were a time of enormous cultural shifts for women the rise of the feminist women's liberation movement ground breaking equality legislation and greater reproductive freedoms impacted on most women's lives in a plethora of ways however until now there has been little attention to how those changes were disseminated to and framed within women's media this is because most media of the period were run by men for men and focused on men's lives however within women's magazines the changes in women's lives and feminism itself were framed debated and contested this volume features unique interviews with the influential women who produced the magazines Spare Rib Cosmopolitan and Woman's Own and who give insights into the national and international events ideologies and constraints which impacted on their content creation this book will be of great value to contemporary historians students of gender and cultural studies media scholars and those who are interested in finding out how feminism influenced their parents and their own generation after years out of print this new and redesigned book brings back the best and most complete history of the women's army corps loaded with history tables charts statistics photos personalities and many useful appendices including a history of WAC uniforms the women's army corps 1945-1978 is must reading for anyone who served those years in the army as well as for those who want a complete history of the modern day military author Bettie Morden served from 1942-1972 and she used her experience and access to people and records to compile the definitive reference work Col Morden is a graduate of the WAC Officers Advanced Course 1962 Command and General Staff College 1964 and the Army Management School 1965 she has been awarded the Distinguished Service Medal the Legion of Merit the Joint Service Commendation Medal and the Army Commendation Medal with Oak Leaf Cluster an essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women in recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lorde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J. Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research the book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a mélange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate in a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships identity politics in the women's movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose
