the objective of this book is to introduce a new theory of leadership traditionally leadership is understood as the ability of charismatic personalities to create a following and to achieve significant results against great odds this study takes a different point of departure author armin klesing asks two questions how can the response behavior to events be calibrated through the right persons and what does it take to actively create a new budget this leads to the elegant concept of temporality of leadership which describes the proper calibration of societies cultures states businesses armies and whatever else lends itself to be described as a time dependent chain process in fields of dynamic perturbations the author blends philosophy self development history current affairs and business building to describe the potential implications of this novel approach the tao te ching contains the teachings of lao tzu and is considered a fundamental text of the taoist tradition the english text has been translated from the french

this collection of essays addresses the question of lucidity as a thematic in literature and film but also as a quality of both expression and insight in literary criticism and critical thought more generally the essays offer treatments of lucidity in itself and in relation to its opposites forms of obscurity and darkness they offer attention to problems of philosophical thought and reason to questions of literary and poetic form and of photographic and filmic contemplation ranging from engagements with early modern writing through to more recent material the contributions focus in particular on nineteenth and twentieth century french prose and poetry the field which has been the predominant focus of alison finch s critical writing they are written as tributes to the distinctively lucid insights of her work and to the breadth and clarity of its intellectual engagement
